

BIRMINGHAM 2022
COMMONWEALTH GAMES

SPORTS CHAPLAINS NEEDED

THE GAMES ARE COMING AND WE NEED YOU!

Birmingham Churches Together in partnership with churches and Christian organisations across the Midlands and UK, are looking for committed Christians who would be interested in volunteering as Sports Chaplains in preparation for the Birmingham Commonwealth Games 2022, the Games and beyond.

We are committed to serving everyone involved in the games, from the event staff, teams, and spectators. We can only do this by partnering with committed individuals who are keen to show compassion and give a listening ear to people of all backgrounds and beliefs.

Once interest is shown, applications, interviews and mandatory training will be done through Sports Chaplaincy UK (SCUK). There will also be opportunities for you to serve your local community – either sports clubs or other community groups before and after the games.

Chaplaincy opportunities include:

- Sports Chaplains – in your local sports club or gym, through your local church in partnership with SCUK
- Police Chaplains – serving West Midlands Police
- Community Chaplains – connecting with opportunities to serve in our city
